All Credit for Tuberculosis
"Cure" Really Belongs to Pierowski.

DR BEATTIE MAKES CHARGE

He Brings Supply of Serum and Will Distribute It to Physicians.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, May 16.—Dr. William Johnston Beattie, a well-known New Hampshire and New York physician, returned from Berlin on the Mauretania to-day, bringing with him samples of the Plorkowski turtle serum which, he declares, will be available for the use of reputable physicians in the treatment of tuberculosis.

The Plorkowski and Friedmann serums are practically identical, though Dr. Beattie says that that produced by Plorkowski has been developed to a high point of perfection. "To Dr. Plorkowski," said Dr. Beattie, "belongs all the credit for discovering the turtle bacilli. Dr. Friedmann was working in the laboratory with Plorkowski, and learned of the latter's discovery. He stole the idea, and sought to commercialize it."

"Dr. Friedmann pretends that there is a great secret attached to his vaccine. There is no secret about it. The production of the vaccine depends entirely upon the intelligence of the scientist."

It is simply a discovery that a turtle may be inoculated with human tubercular bacilli and those bacilli made non-virulent by transplanting them through various cold-blooded animals. It takes a long time to make these cultures safe for use on a human, but there is no secret about the process. The most important thing about this treatment is the diagnosis. It is absolutely necessary that a physician make a thorough diagnosis before using the serum.

"The effect is this. The living turtle bacilli, when injected into a patient who has tuberculosis, attack the human tubercular bacilli and destroy them."

Dr. Beattie, on his arrival here to-day, gave out a statement describing how the turtle bacilli were discovered by Max Plorkowski, and telling how the preparations are made. He said that he had obtained the right to the Plorkowski serum for New York and New England, and that he would furnish it to any physician of standing at what it cost him. Dr. Beattie plans to open a sanatorium in New York State for the treatment of tuberculosis.

Death was apparently due to natural causes.

Although the police made every effort to have him positively identified, they had been unable to do so at an early hour this morning.

Instead of the thirty women now being cared for, many more of the 100 who were seeking admission could find a home there. Mrs. Montague made a distinct impression on her hearers and was congratulated upon the work she had accomplished.

GIRL DESPONDENT OVER LOVE AFFAIR

Recent Winner of Prize in Popularity Contest Drinks Poison in Effort to Die.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Harrisonburg, Va., May 16.—Despondent over a love affair, Miss Mollie McDorman, eighteen years old, daughter of Lill McDorman, drank two ounces of iodine and a quantity of carbolic acid yesterday. A physician administered antidotes and saved the girl's life. At a circus and carnival here two weeks ago the girl won a $100 diamond ring in the popularity contest. Yesterday she talked about self-destruction in the popularity contest. Yesterday she talked about self-destruction in the popularity contest. Yesterday she talked about self-destruction in the popularity contest.

Two automobile accidents occurred near here yesterday. Last night Dr. E. F. Palmer, of Timberville, was riding out with a party of four, Messrs. Hoover and Miss Ott, of Harrisonburg, and Miss Russell, of Winchester. Near Bridgewater his car turned turtle and four of the occupants were pinned under the machine. None was more than scratched and slightly bruised. Near Harrisonburg Claud Garber and a party of six Harrisonburgers smashed into a fence, damaging the car and giving the occupants a fearful jolt. Their escape was wonderful. A severe storm broke the five weeks' drought here late yesterday. In West Rockingham trees were struck by lightning, and in Bridgewater the spire of the Presbyterian Church was hit and the roof set afire. It was extinguished with slight damage.

BURNS REDUCED IN RANK AND SALARY

Weather Bureau Employee Found Guilty of Misconduct in Performance of Duties.

Washington, May 16.—Charles T. Burns, an assistant foreman in the Weather Bureau, suspended at the time of the dismissal of Chief Willis L. Moore, to-day was reduced in rank and salary by Secretary Houston, who declared Burns "guilty of misconduct in the performance of his duties."

Moore was dismissed for "serious irregularities" and misuse of his office, of which it was alleged he had been guilty in his campaign for appointment as Secretary of Agriculture in President Wilson's Cabinet. The case was referred to the Department of Justice for investigation. Burns was charged with conspiracy.

Professor Oliver L. Fassig, against whom charges had been preferred by Moore, was acquitted of all except one—that of making a false statement regarding an item of expense amounting to $8.55. No action was taken in his case. Fassig contended Moore made the charges because he refused to support his candidacy for Secretary of Agriculture.

INSISTS ON EARLY ACTION

Senator Kern Insistent to Have West Virginia Investigated.

Washington, May 16.—Senator Kern's resolution for investigation of the charges of Peonage, Militarism and oppression of workers in the West Virginia mine district, was not taken up to-day, but went over as unfinished business, and will be laid before the Senate Monday. Backed with numerous affidavits and statements alleging despotism and a reign of terror maintained by the mine operators, Mr. Kern announced to-day that he would insist on early action. Senator Kern received a letter to-day from State Senator Samuel R. Montgomery, of Kingwood, W. Va., who declared "human life was the only thing held valueless by the mine operators," and that the head of the State mining department was an operator in whose mines occurred frequent explosions.

Senator Montgomery wrote that 700 miners had been killed in mine explosions in the State, and the only thing received by the widows were the "pine boxes" in which their husbands were buried. He declared that the mining departments displayed no interest in human lives, and that a lobby was maintained against employers' liability laws, of which West Virginia had none.

AN EXPERT ON PLANT LIFE

Professor Beverly T. Galloway, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, Galloway, until he received the appointment from Secretary Houston, was head of the Bureau of Plant Industry. He is an expert botanist, and there are some who concede that there is no man in this or any other country who knows more about plant life than he.

ANOTHER CHARGE AGAINST HEETER

It Is Filed on Eve of His Vindication by Citizens' Committee.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Pittsburgh, Pa., May 16.—On the eve of his vindication by the citizens' committee appointed by the school board to examine his morals, S. L. Heeter, superintendent of schools, was this afternoon charged by his former stenographer, Mrs. Alice Wessels, with improper conduct while she was in his employ. Mrs. Wessels was before her marriage, a few months ago, Miss Alice Lang. She declares she was discharged from Heeter's service because she would not work at night. Mrs. Wessels's charges were in the form of an affidavit, attested by A. H. Wessels, her husband. They were presented to the citizens' committee, which is expected to act upon them to-morrow. A copy of the affidavit was handed to each of the Pittsburgh newspapers to make certain that it would be made public.

"I denounce this entire story as an other malicious lie," said Heeter this evening. "Its author does not dare appear before the committee and testify."

Mrs. Wessels had declined to appear before the committee, saying that she did not want to be mixed up in the scandal any more than necessary.

Mrs. Wessels was one of a number of witnesses that refused to appear before the committee. Because of its inability to get competent evidence, it is reported, has about decided to exonerate Heeter of all charges of immorality and declare him fit to supervise the public schools.
